

1 Krakauer's account of commercial Everest expeditions may best be regarded as

- a. praise for commercialism
- b. love of commercialism
- c. criticizing excessive commercialism
- d. dislike for Taiwanese expeditions
- e. dislike for South African expeditions

2 Krakauer climbed with

- a. Adventure Consultants
- b. Mount Madness
- c. Himalayan Adventures
- d. North Face Adventure Expeditions

3 Beck Weathers climbed with

- a. Adventure Consultants
- b. Mount Madness
- c. Himalayan Adventures
- d. North Face Adventure Expeditions

4 In 1953, the great climber Edmund Hillary conquered Everest. Hundreds of great climbers followed him in the years to come. In 1985, Dick Bass climbed Everest after the hundreds who came before him.

So what was distinctive about Dick Bass's climb to the summit of Everest?

- a. He was the second man to climb Everest.
- b. He was the first to climb without oxygen and paved the way for later athletes to climb without oxygen.
- c. He was the first to die.
- d. He was the first amateur to climb by paying a team of experts to take him up.

5 What is Pete Athens' complaint about the new Everest clients?

- a. Too messy
- b. Too aggressive
- c. Too amateurish
- d. Too many foreigners

6 Who is Rob Hall? What is his company?

- a. Owner of Mountain Madness
- b. Owner of Everest Expeditions Inc.
- c. Owner of Adventure Consultants
- d. Owner of Himalayan Adventures.com

7 Who is Scott Fischer? What is his company?

- a. Owner of Mountain Madness
- b. Owner of Everest Expeditions Inc.
- c. Owner of Adventure Consultants
- d. Owner of Himalayan Adventures.com

8 Fischer was under considerable pressure in the year 1996. Explain.

- a. He was new to the field
- b. He had failed to get anyone to the top last year
- c. A client died last year (1995)
- d. He had gone bankrupt in 1995 – and needed money

9 Who was Doug Hansen? Why was he frustrated by his Everest experience?

- a. He was a tour leader whose clients had failed to reach the top
- b. He was a postal worker who failed last year.
- c. He went blind while climbing this year

10 Jon Krakauer writes the account of this Everest climb. What was his person climbing experience and expertise?

- a. Everest expert
- b. North American high peak expert
- c. Rock climber
- d. No experience

11 To acclimatize is

- A To get used to high altitude atmosphere
- B The climate of the mountains
- C To climb a high mountain
- D To speak the language of the mountains

12 A gale is

- A. snow
- B. Ice
- C. Wind
- D. avalanche
- E spike

13 Apex

- A. Top
- B. Bottom
- C. Middle
- D. An abyss

14 Escarpment

- A an ice pick
- B to escape
- C avalanche
- D steep slope

15 The Adventure Consultants team is climbing Everest today, but the Mountain Madness Team is also on its way to the summit.

- A simple sentence
- B compound sentence
- C. complex sentence
- D. run on sentence

16 Mountain Madness is

- C. Halls group
- B. Fischer's group
- C. Makalu's group
- D. Woodall's group

17 Andy Harris climbs with

- A Mountain Madness
- B Adventure Consultants
- C. Woodall's South Africans
- D. The Taiwanese

18 Mike Groom climbs with

- A Mountain Madness
- B Adventure Consultants
- C. Woodall's South Africans
- D. The Taiwanese

19 Anatoli Boukreev climbs with

A Mountain Madness      B Adventure Consultants      C. Woodall's South Africans      D. The Taiwanese

20 Neil Beidleman climbs with A Mountain Madness   B Adventure Consultants   C. Woodall's South Africans

21 John Krakauer climbs with    A Mountain Madness      B Adventure Consultants      C. Woodall's South Africans D. Everest Adventures      E. High Society Inc.

22 Yasuko Namba climbs with

A Mountain Madness                      B Adventure Consultants
C. Woodall's South Africans              D. Taiwanese              E. Everest Adventures

23 Beck Weathers climbs with

A Mountain Madness                      B Adventure Consultants
C. Woodall's South Africans              D. Taiwanese              E. Everest Adventures

24 Sandy Hill Pittman climbs with

A Mountain Madness                      B Adventure Consultants
C. Woodall's South Africans              D. Taiwanese              E. Everest Adventures

25 Doug Hansen climbs with

A Mountain Madness                      B Adventure Consultants
C. Woodall's South Africans              D. The Taiwanese              E. Everest Adventures

26 Makalu Gau climbs with

A Mountain Madness                      B Adventure Consultants
C. Woodall's South Africans              D. The Taiwanese              E. Everest Adventures

27 Why does Krakauer dislike the Taiwanese expedition?

- a. Too aggressive
- b. Too polluting
- c. Too amateurish
- d. Low quality climbing equipment

28. Everest is situated on the border of Nepal and Tibet.
of Nepal and Tibet is a/an
- Noun phrase
  - Verb phrase
  - Prepositional phrase
  - Adverbial phrase
  - Linking verb phrase
- 29 What does Krakauer say about the South African expedition? Explain Woodall.
- He charges too much to unsuspecting customers, then fails to get them to the summit.
  - He dirties the mountain with trash from discarded tents and oxygen bottles
  - He is a liar and a crook - with little real experience at high altitude.
- 30 “Though Andy Harris had never reached the top of Everest, he was an experience high altitude climber.”
What kind of sentence is the sentence above?
- Simple sentence
  - Compound sentence
  - Complex sentence
  - Run on sentence
  - Appositive construction
- 31 How does the “solo climber” climbing down in defeat impress Krakauer, Rob Hall, and Andy Harris as they observe the slopes before their own climb?
- He ascended without oxygen
  - He reached the top alone
  - He survived the avalanche
  - He sensibly turned around before reaching the top when conditions worsened
  - He saved a fellow climber’s life when that climber fell from the Hillary Step.
- 32 How is a commercial expedition different from a traditional Everest expedition?
- A commercial expedition is financed by a large corporation.
  - A commercial expedition has only expert professional climbers.
  - A commercial expedition brings amateurs to the top for a fee.
- 33 What is a “PREDETERMINED TURN-AROUND TIME”
- The Nepalese government gives an expedition exactly one week to climb Everest
  - Rob Hall gives his clients exactly one week to climb Everest – no more and no less,
  - Rob Hall gives his clients the order to give up the climb if they’re not to the top by 1 PM or 2 PM
- 34 Describe the South COL.
- The Base Camp - the starting point of the expedition -17000 feet.
  - Camp II - 28000 feet
  - The apex of Everest – the top – at 29028feet
  - The starting point for the final climb to the top of Everest – 26000 feet
  - The meeting Hall in Katmandu
- 35 Which three expeditions (one in defiance of a promise to wait) will make the summit attempt on May 10, 1996?
- Mountain Madness, Adventure Consultants, and Himalayan Adventures
  - Mountain Madness, the Taiwanese, and Himalayan Adventures
  - Mountain Madness, Adventure Consultants, and Himalayan Adventures
  - Mountain Madness, Adventure Consultants, and the Taiwanese expedition
- 36 Who will climb without bottled oxygen on May 10, 1996?
- Rob Hall and Jon Krakauer
  - Anatoli Boukreev and Lobsang Jangbu
  - Andy Harris and Scott Fischer
  - Lene Gammelgaard and Stuart Hutchison

- 37 What is short roping? Who will use it? On whom? What might be going on behind the scenes?
- a. Lene Gammelgard might be paying Ang Dorge money to pull her up on a rope
  - b. Sandy Hill Pittman might be paying Lobsang Jangbu to pull her up on a rope
  - c. Beck Weathers might be paying Rob Hall to pull him up on a rope.
  - d. Tom Madsen might be paying Anatoli Boukreev to pull him up on a rope.
- 38 What is Jon Krakauer's main emotion as he stands at the top of Mount Everest?
- a. regret
  - b. happiness
  - c. detachment
  - d. nostalgia
- 39 Which of the following items is an example of foreshadowing?
- a. Krakauer's eating noodle soup and candies
  - b. Krakauer's early mention of the number of people who are amateurs climbing Everest.
  - c. The blanket of clouds Krakauer sees when he turns to take photographs from the top
  - d. Krakauer's references to money people paid to be guided on the climb
- 40 Why does Krakauer feel better after Harris turns the valve on the regulator?
- a. Krakauer is happy to have seen another climber.
  - b. Harris gives Krakauer a pep talk.
  - c. Krakauer realizes that he thinks clearer if he breathes more deeply.
  - d. Harris accidentally increases the oxygen flow.
- 41 Which of the following words best summarizes Krakauer's feeling about everything that happens on the mountain?
- a. quietly horrified
  - b. totally impressed
  - c. utterly disinterested
  - d. truly enchanted
- 42 Under the circumstances, the final conversation between Rob Hall and his wife Jan is best described as
- a. tragic
  - b. comical
  - c. absurd
  - d. exciting
- 43 Tom Hornbein seems convinced that many future Everest expeditions are likely to
- a. be cancelled
  - b. be easy
  - c. win praise
  - d. end in disaster
- 44 When Beck Weathers finally stumbles into camp, he is described as looking like a
- a. smiling and excited ghost
  - b. creature from a horror movie
  - c. delighted white rabbit
  - d. frowning snowman with mittens
- 45 When he has to make a difficult decision about Namba's and Weathers's fate, Hutchison consults with
- a. Hall
  - b. Krakauer
  - c. Weathers
  - d. the Sherpa guide
- 46 A boss among Sherpa Everest workers is known as a
- a. Sherpasingha
  - b. Lama
  - c. Sirdar
  - d. honcho
- 47 A member of a culture of people originally from Tibet who live on the southern Himalayan slopes in Nepal.
- a. Sherpa
  - b. Sirdar
  - c. Parvenus
  - d. Centurians
  - e. The Han People

48. "Krakauer never witnessed widespread death until he climbed Everest in 1996."
The sentence above is an example of a
- Simple sentence
  - Compound sentence
  - Complex sentence
  - Run-on sentence
49. A ridge, pinnacle, or block of ice in the crevasses or slope or a glacier
- stalactite
  - serac
  - theodolite
  - glacier
50. Head guide and owner of Adventure Consultants and has summited the tallest mountain in each of the 7 Continents in a period of only 7 months.
- Andy Harris
  - Doug Hansen
  - Rob Hall
  - Mike Groom
  - Neal Beidleman
51. An Australian guide with Adventure Consultants.
- Ang Dorje Sherpa
  - Scott Fischer
  - Mike Groom
  - Stuart Hutchison
52. Rob Hall's number one Sherpa.
- Tee han Yee
  - Sun Yat Sen
  - Ang Dorjee
  - Cho En Lai
53. Jon Krakauer has written several books about the danger and the excitement of "the great outdoors."
"has written" is a
- Noun phrase
  - Verb phrase
  - Prepositional phrase
  - Adjective phrase
  - Adverb phrase
54. He is left for dead with Yasuko Namba when their group gets lost on the way down from the mountain.
- Stuart Hutchison
  - Scott Fischer
  - Beck Weathers
  - Mike Groom
  - Doug Hansen
55. A world respected Russian climber who had previously summited Everest with no supplemental oxygen.
- Bud Jones
  - Anatoli Boukreev
  - Antonin Borokovsky
  - Boris Spasky
  - Victor Karpov

- 56 “That enormous, snow covered, wind swept mountain is surely the highest, most daunting peak in the entire world.”
The sentence just above is a
a. Simple sentence
b. Compound sentence
c. Complex sentence
d. Run on sentence
e. Dependent clause
- 57 Fischer's head sherpa.
a Ang Lei Han
b Makalu Gau
c Ang Dorjee
d Lopsang Jangbu
- 58 One of the clients with Scott Fischer's guide service who is lost for a while during the storm on the Col.
a Rob Hall
b Beck Weathers
c Ian Woodall
d Sandy Pittman
- 59 The leader of the South African expedition.
a Ginger Baker
b Tim Madsen
c Ian Woodall
d Makalu Gau
- 60 The leader of the Tiawanese climbing group.
a Chou En Lai
b Makalu Gau
c Shaolian Bei
d Earl C. Washington III
- 61 A small-time celebrity employee of NBC who is along on the expedition to dispatch media files.
a Chris Hallings
b Jim Madsen
c Tim Russert
d Sandy Pittman
- 62 Hall sacrifices his own life to be with Doug at the end. Identify the grammar of sacrifices
a. Noun    b. pronoun    c. verb    d. adjective    e. adverb
- 63 Each climber is there for himself. This attitude represents what – in Krakauer’s view?
a Life questions that cannot be answered
b Arrogance: believing that nature can be tamed by a well organized cooperative expedition.
c Solitude and Self-Reliance to the point of selfishness- promoted by commercialism.
- 64 Fischer claims that he has built a yellow brick road to the summit. To Krakauer, this is an example of a Commercialism on Everest to the point of deception.
b Arrogance: believing that one man has the key to everything.
c Trust Among Teammates to the point of foolishness.
- 65 What was Krakauer's climbing experience prior to Everest?
(A) He was a climber skilled and experienced at high altitudes.
(B) He didn't have much climbing experience at all.
(C) He had a lot of climbing experience, but not at high altitudes.
(D) He climbed Andean mountains as a hobby while he was a teenager.

66 Hall WAS Krakauer's head guide.

Identify the grammar of was.

- (A) noun phrase
- (B) pronoun adjunct
- (C) linking verb
- (D) prepositional phrase

67 “Although other mountains are more challenging, Everest remains the ideal prize for most amateur climbers.”

The word, “Remains,” is a/an

- (A) Object of a preposition
- (B) adjective
- (C) noun phrase
- (D) linking verb
- (E) subordinating conjunction

68 How long had Rob Hall been guiding at Adventure Consultants?

- (A) 1996 was his first year.
- (B) Since 1957
- (C) Since he was nineteen years old
- (D) Since 1992

69 How good was Rob Hall's track record as a guide?

- (A) Mediocre—he had gotten a few clients to the summit, but not many.
- (B) Hall suffered a lack of respect from the climbing community when he became a guide.
- (C) A great record — in five years, Hall guided thirty-nine clients to the peak of Everest.
- (D) Hall had a good reputation, but not as good as Scott Fischer's.

70 How was Scott Fischer's track record as a guide?

- (A) Mediocre—he had gotten a few clients to the summit, but not many.
- (B) Hall suffered a lack of respect from the climbing community when he became a guide.
- (C) A great record — in five years, Hall guided thirty-nine clients to the peak of Everest.
- (D) Scott had a good reputation as a climber, but this was his first year guiding commercial expeditions.

71 How would you characterize Rob Hall and Scott Fischer's relationship?

- (A) The two men were life-long friends.
- (B) The men were friends and climbing companions, but competitors for the same business.
- (C) The men did not like each other, as they ran competitive businesses.
- (D) The men did not know one another before the 1996 climb.

72 Which of the following people reached the summit by 2:00 pm, not too long after the turn-around time?

- (A) Rob Hall
- (B) Scott Fischer
- (C) Doug Hansen
- (D) Jon Krakauer

73 Which of the guides descends the summit long before the clients of Mountain Madness?

- (A) Andy Harris
- (B) Anatoli Boukreev
- (C) Lopsang Sherpa
- (D) Rob Hall

74 Which of the following clients is not later rescued by Anatoli Boukreev?

- (A) Yasuko Namba
- (B) Tim Madsen
- (C) Charlotte Fox
- (D) Sandy Pittman

75 Who, suffering from oxygen starvation, tells the climbers that the oxygen canisters at the South Summit are empty?

- (A) Rob Hall
- (B) Mike Groom
- (C) Andy Harris
- (D) Doug Hansen

76 Why does Lopsang Sherpa refuse to deliver oxygen to Hall and Hansen who are stranded on the summit?

- (A) As Fischer's Sherpa, he naturally wants to find and assist Fischer.
- (B) He is too tired to climb to the top.
- (C) He does not want to help Hall because Hall has criticized him.
- (D) The oxygen canisters are all empty – why try?

77 Why won't Hall leave the summit, even though he knows that staying will probably result in his own death?

- (A) He is too tired to climb down.
- (B) He is out of supplemental oxygen, and he is no longer thinking clearly.
- (C) He will not leave Doug Hansen, who is too incapacitated to climb down on his own.
- (D) The ropes on the summit have become unfastened.

78 Many problems on the climb are caused by people who refuse to admit their

- a. hunger
- b. weaknesses
- c. fears
- d. homesickness

79 One troublesome effect of the decreasing oxygen is that the climbers

- a. have impaired judgment
- b. become constantly irritable
- c. refuse to eat or drink
- d. can no longer see clearly

80 Krakauer experiences all of the following effects of being in a high altitude except

- a. sleeplessness
- b. frostbite
- c. exhaustion
- d. lack of appetite

81 Krakauer implies that an underlying reason for many climbers' foolish decisions is

- a. their desire to travel home as quickly as possible – and a determination to get it over with.
- b. their failure to dress appropriately for the cold weather
- c. the amount of money they spent on the expedition, and a determination to make it worthwhile.
- d. their dislike of snow, ice, and wind.
- e. their hatred for other expeditions.

82 Based on the descriptions in this account, Mount Everest is best described as

- a. magical
- b. uncaring
- c. not as difficult to conquer as some have claimed
- d. charming

83 Most tragic events on the mountain are caused by

- a. decisions made in anger
- b. understandable little accumulating mistakes
- c. excessive fear
- d. inexperienced guides who climb without protecting clients

84 Beck Weathers becomes stranded alone because of all of the following conditions except*

- a. He has difficulty seeing.
- b. The guide asks him to wait.
- c. He loses one of his gloves.
- d. He chooses not to follow Krakauer down.

- 85 It is after dark on May10. What is Rob Hall doing near the top of Everest?
- Trying to save Makalu Gau
  - Trying to save Doug Hansen
  - He is too sick to move effectively
  - He has fallen unconscious
- 86 It is after dark on May10. What is Scott Fischer doing near the top of Everest?
- Trying to save Makalu Gau.
  - Trying to save Doug Hansen.
  - He is too sick to move down effectively.
  - He has fallen off the slope.
  - Heart attack.
- 87 It is after dark on May10. What is Makalu Gau doing near the top of Everest?
- Trying to save Rob Hall.
  - Trying to save Doug Hansen.
  - He is too sick to move effectively.
  - He has become lost and has fallen behind his sherpas.
  - Heart attack.
- 88 It is after dark on May10. Where is Jon Krakauer?
- Trying to save Makalu Gau.
  - Trying to save Doug Hansen.
  - He is too sick to move effectively.
  - He has fallen off the slope.
  - He is in his tent resting after the climb.
- 89 It is after dark on May10. What is Beck Weathers sitting in the snow for?
- Blinded, he is waiting for Rob Hall to return to him.
  - He was trying to save Doug Hansen – before the heart attack.
  - Blinded, he is too sick to move effectively.
  - Blinded, he has fallen off the slope.
- 90 It is well after dark on May10. Where are Sandy Hill, Tim Madsen, Lene Gamelgaard, and others?
- Trying to save Makalu Gau in the storm.
  - Trying to save Doug Hansen in the storm.
  - Too sick to move effectively.
  - Wandering lost in a storm on the South Col.
  - Stuck at the summit of Everest in a freak storm.
- 91 Incredibly, Rob Hall
- Died instantly
  - Had a heart attack despite his youth
  - Survived all night at the Hillary Step
  - Fell off the mountain in the blinding storm.
- 92 Why didn't Rob Hall come down the mountain?
- He was too ill.
  - He felt responsible for having dragged Doug Hansen into a deadly situation.
  - He felt responsible for having dragged Scott Fischer into a deadly situation.
  - He felt responsible for having dragged Makalu Gau into a deadly situation.
- 93 Almost everyone would agree that Rob Hall died
- Heroically.
  - Cowardly.
  - Sickly.
  - Instantly.
  - Happily.

94 Almost everyone would agree that Scott Fischer died

- a. Heroically.
- b. Cowardly.
- c. Because of a sad and unpredictable health development.
- d. Instantly because of an unpredictable heart attack.
- e. Happily in the knowledge that his friend – Makalu Gau – would survive.

95 Almost everyone would agree that Makalu Gau

- b. Died heroically at 27000 feet
- c. Died cowardly at 27000 feet
- d. Survived - incredibly - all night alone at 27000 feet.
- e. Was the bravest of the sherpas

96 A “col” is

- A A climber with little experience at high altitudes
- B A mountain next to Everest
- C A low area between two peaks
- D The summit of a mountain
- E The foothills near a high mountain

97 A “CWM” is

- A A climber who does high altitude climbing
- B A mountain next to Everest
- C A flat area between two peaks
- D The summit of a mountain
- E A tilted valley in a mountain range.

98 Where does the “death zone” begin?

- a. 17,000-18,000 feet
- b. 20,000-22,000 feet
- c. 25,000-26,000 feet
- d. 28,000-29,000 feet

99 Does Jon Krakauer think that Everest expeditions can and should be made safer?

- a. Yes! With an aggressive program of climbing regulation, we can make Everest safe.
- b. No! Nothing can be done to change things.
- c. Perhaps a little education about the risks is the best we can hope for.
- d. “Stop worrying,” says Krakauer. People enjoy risks, and that’s just fine with him.

100. Although Mount Everest is the tallest mountain in the world, Many people insist that Mount Anapurma is the most dangerous mountain in the world.

in the world is a

- a. Noun phrase
- b. Verb phrase
- c. Adjective phrase
- d. Prepositional phrase
- e. Adverb phrase